

Name Mag. Andreas Frech
Born 30.7.1959, Vienna/Austria

Business positions

2005-today Management Consultant, specialty Organisational Change and Development.
In addition acting as investor.

1992-2005 EFP became Implementation Partner of SAP AG and has led the implementation of SAP/R3 in numerous companies and industries. In addition to his role as CEO Andreas Frech also acted as project manager and project architect and was deeply involved in the content-wise conception and implementation of the consulting services offered.
Mr. Frech initiated and led several expansion steps of EFP into Switzerland, Germany, Slovakia, Poland, and the Czech Republic. In 2004 EFP employed appr. 250 people and reached appr. 30 Mio € of revenue.
In 2005 EFP was successfully sold and integrated into S&T AG.

1986-2005 Foundation and growth of EFP Consulting GmbH, Consulting Services.
Mag. Andreas Frech acted as CEO of EFP.

1985-1986 Faculty Assistant at the University of Economics Vienna, Faculty for Auditing, Trust and Accounting (Prof. Anton Egger)

1983-1985 Employee at Süd Ost Treuhand AG Wien,
Tax Consultancy and Auditing – speciality IT-Audit

2003-dato Head of the Supervisory Board of Busy Angel AG
2006-dato Head of the Supervisory Board of ST Global Holding AG

Education

1998-2000 Systemic Consulting – intensive program / long-term group
1978-1983 Studies of Information Technology and Economics at the University of Vienna
1973-1978 Student for Communications Engineering at the HTL Wien 1 (Technical College)

Work Experience

- Leading Change-Projects in diverse industries
- ERP and Process design
- Review and assessment of different companies in M&A-activities
- Wide competencies in Business Economics and IT- know how
- Entrepreneurial approach based on long-term experience as entrepreneur by heading and developing an international consulting group.
- Consulting experience and approach to problem-solving due to deep consulting experience gained through numerous consulting projects.